

LESSON 09 : GIVING DIRECTIONS

05. Point of View - Present Tense Q_A

English

---

William is going to the train station.

Where is William going?

The train station. William is going to the train station. He is going to the train station.

Who is going to the train station?

William. William is going to the train station. He is going to the train station.

Is William going to the airport?

No. William isn't going to the airport. William is going to the train station.

He isn't sure how to get there.

Who isn't sure how to get there?

William isn't sure how to get there. He isn't sure how to get to the train station.

Is William sure how to get to the train station?

No. William isn't sure how to get there. He isn't sure how to get to the train station.

Does William know how to get to the train station?

No. He doesn't know how to get to the train station. William doesn't know how to get to the train station.

He meets Kate and asks her for directions.

Does William meet his friend Sam?

No. William doesn't meet his friend Sam. He meets Kate and asks her for directions.

Who does William meet?

Kate. He meets Kate and asks her for directions. William meets Kate and asks her for directions.

What does William ask Kate?

William asks her for directions. He meets Kate and asks her for directions.

Kate is happy to help William and tells him how to get to the train station.

What does Kate do for William?

Kate tells him how to get to the train station. Kate is happy to help William and tells him how to get to the train station.

Is Kate angry she meets William?

No. Kate isn't angry when she meets William. Kate is happy to help William and tells him how to get to the train station.

Where does Kate help William go?

Kate helps William go to the train station. Kate is happy to help William and tells him how to get to the train station.

Kate tells William to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left.

Where does Kate tell William to walk?

Kate tells William to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left. She tells him to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left.

Does Kate tell William to turn left at the library?

No. Kate doesn't tell William to turn left at the library. Kate tells William to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left.

How does Kate tell William to walk?

Kate tells William to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left. She tells him to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left.

Kate says the train station's across from the bus station.

Where does Kate say the train station is located?

The train station's across from the bus station. She says the train station's across from the bus station. Kate says the train station's across from the bus station.

What is across from the bus station?

The train station. Kate says the train station's across from the bus station. She says the train station is across from the bus station.

Is the train station across from the bus station?

Yes, the train station's across from the bus station. Kate says the train station's across from the bus station.

William thanks Kate and says he has only been in California for 2 days.

How long has William been in California?

2 days. He has been in California for 2 days. William thanks Kate and says he has only been in California for 2 days.

Who thanks Kate?

William. William thanks Kate and says he has only been in California for 2 days.

How many days has William been in California?

2 days. William has been in California for 2 days. William says he has only been in California for 2 days.

Does William say he has been in California for one year?

No. William doesn't say he has been in California for one year. William thanks Kate and says he has only been in California for 2 days.

Kate says she and her husband have lived in California for 6 months.

How long have Kate and her husband been in California?

6 months. Kate says she and her husband have been in California for 6 months.

Does Kate have a husband?

Yes. Kate has a husband. Kate says she and her husband have lived in California for 6 months.

Have Kate and her husband lived in California for 6 months?

Yes. Kate says she and her husband have lived in California for 6 months.

She says she still gets lost.

Who says she still gets lost?

Kate. Kate says she still gets lost. She says she still gets lost.

What does Kate say?

She says she still gets lost. Kate says she still gets lost.

Does Kate say she has never got lost?

No. She doesn't say she has never got lost. Kate says she still get lost.

William double – checks the directions.

Who double – checks the directions?

William. William double – checks the directions.

What does William do?

He double – checks the directions. William double – checks the directions.

Does John double – checks the directions?

No. John doesn't double – check the directions. William double – checks the directions.

William thanks Kate for giving him directions and says he has to leave.

Does William tell Kate he can have lunch with her?

No. William doesn't tell Kate he can have lunch with her. William thanks Kate for giving him directions and says he has to leave.

Who does William thank?

Kate. William thanks Kate. William thanks Kate for giving him directions. He thanks Kate for giving him directions and says he has to leave.

Why doesn't William continue talking to Kate?

Because he has to leave. William says he has to leave. William thanks Kate for giving him directions and says he has to leave.

---