

LESSON 09 : GIVING DIRECTIONS

11. Point of View - Future Tense Q_A

English

William will be going to the train station.

Where will William be going?

William will be going to the train station. He will be going to the train station.

Who will be going to the train station?

William. William will be going to the train station. He will be going to the train station.

Will William be going to the airport?

No. William won't be going to the airport. William will be going to the train station.

He won't be sure how to get there.

Who won't be sure how to get there?

William won't be sure how to get there. He won't be sure how to get to the train station.

Will William be sure how to get to the train station?

No. He won't be sure how to get there. He won't be sure how to get to the train station.

Will William know how to get to the train station?

No. He won't know how to get to the train station. William won't know how to get to the train station.

He will meet Kate and ask her for directions.

Will William meet his friend Sam?

No. William won't meet his friend Sam. He'll meet Kate and ask her for directions.

Who will William meet?

Kate. He will meet Kate and ask her for directions. William will meet Kate and ask her for directions.

What will William ask Kate?

He'll ask her for directions. He will meet Kate and ask her for directions.

Kate will be happy to help William and tell him how to get to the train station.

What will Kate do for William?

Kate will be happy to help William and tell him how to get to the train station.

Will Kate be angry when she meets William?

No. Kate won't be angry when she meets William. Kate'll be happy to help William and tell him how to get to the train station.

Where will Kate help William go?

Kate'll help William go to the train station. Kate'll be happy to help William. She will tell him how to get to the train station.

Kate will tell William to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left.

Where will Kate tell William to walk?

Kate'll tell William to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left. She'll tell him to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left.

Will Kate tell William to turn left at the library?

No. Kate won't tell William to turn left at the library. Kate'll tell William to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left.

How will Kate tell William to walk?

Kate will tell William to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left. She'll tell him to walk straight ahead, then after he passes the library, hang a left.

Kate will say the train station is across from the bus station.

Where will Kate say the train station is located?

The train station is across from the bus station. She'll say the train station is across from the bus station. Kate will say the train station is across from the bus station.

What will be across from the bus station?

The train station. Kate will say the train station is across from the bus station. She'll say the train station is across from the bus station.

Will the train station be across from the bus station?

Yes, the train station'll be across from the bus station. Kate'll say the train station is across from the bus station.

William will thank Kate and say he has only been in California for 2 days.

How long will William say he has been in California?

2 days. He will have been in California for 2 days. William will say he has only been in California for 2 days.

Who will thank Kate?

William. William will thank Kate. He will thank Kate and say he has just been in California for 2 days.

How long will William have been in California?

2 days. William will have been in California for 2 days. He will say he has just been in California for 2 days.

Will William say he has been in California for one year?

No. William won't say he has been in California for one year. William'll thank Kate and say he has just been in California for 2 days.

Kate will say she and her husband have only lived in California for 6 months.

How long will Kate and her husband have lived in California?

Kate'll say she and her husband have just lived in California for 6 months.

Will Kate have a husband?

Yes. Kate will have a husband. Kate will say she and her husband have only lived in California for 6 months.

Will Kate and her husband have lived in California for 6 months?

Yes. Kate will say she and her husband have only lived in California for 6 months.

She will say she still gets lost.

Who will say she still gets lost?

Kate. Kate'll say she still gets lost. She will say she still gets lost.

What will Kate say?

She'll say she still gets lost. Kate'll say she still gets lost.

Will Kate say she has never got lost?

No. She'll say she still gets lost. Kate will say she still gets lost.

William will double – check the directions.

Who will double – check the directions?

William. William will double – check the directions.

What will William do?

He will double – check the directions. William will double – check the directions.

Will John double – check the directions?

No. John won't double – check the directions. William will double – check the directions.

William will thank Kate for giving him directions and say he has to leave.

Will William tell Kate he can have lunch with her?

No. William won't tell Kate he can have lunch with her. William will thank Kate for giving him directions and say he has to leave.

Who will William thank?

Kate. William'll thank Kate. William'll thank Kate for giving him directions and say he has to leave.

Why won't William continue talking to Kate?

Because he will have to leave. William will say he has to leave. William'll thank Kate for giving him directions and say he has to leave.
