

LESSON 09 : GIVING DIRECTIONS
08. Point of View - Past Tense Q_A

English

William was going to the train station.

Where was William going?

The train station. William was going to the train station. He was going to the train station.

Who was going to the train station?

William. William was going to the train station. He was going to the train station.

Was William going to the airport?

No. William wasn't going to the airport. William was going to the train station.

He wasn't sure how to get there.

Who wasn't sure how to get there?

William wasn't sure how to get there. He wasn't sure how to get to the train station.

Was William sure how to get to the train station?

No. He wasn't sure how to get there. He wasn't sure how to get to the train station.

Did William know how to get to the train station?

No. He didn't know how to get to the train station. William didn't know how to get to the train station.

He met Kate and asked her for directions.

Did William meet his friend Sam?

No. William didn't meet his friend Sam. He met Kate and asked her for directions.

Who did William meet?

Kate. He met Kate and asked her for directions. William met Kate and asked her for directions.

What did William ask Kate?

He asked her for directions. He met Kate and asked her for directions.

Kate was happy to help William and told him how to get to the train station.

What did Kate do for William?

Kate was happy to help William and told him how to get to the train station.

Was Kate angry she met William?

No. Kate wasn't angry she met William. Kate was happy to help William and told him how to get to the train station.

Where did Kate help William go?

Kate helped William go to the train station. Kate was happy to help William and told him how to get to the train station.

Kate told William to walk straight ahead, then after he passed the library, hang a left.

Where did Kate tell William to walk?

Kate told William to walk straight ahead, then after he passed the library, hang a left. She told him to walk straight ahead, then after he passed the library, hang a left.

Did Kate tell William to turn left at the library?

No. Kate didn't tell William to turn left at the library. Kate told William to walk straight ahead, then after he passed the library, hang a left.

How did Kate tell William to walk?

Kate told William to walk straight ahead, then after he passed the library, hang a left. She told him to walk straight ahead, then after he passed the library, hang a left.

Kate said the train station was across from the bus station.

Where did Kate say the train station was located?

The train station was across from the bus station. She said the train station was across from the bus station. Kate said the train station was across from the bus station.

What was across from the bus station?

The train station. Kate said the train station was across from the bus station. She said the train station was across from the bus station.

Was the train station across from the bus station?

Yes, the train station was across from the bus station. Kate said the train station was across from the bus station.

William thanked Kate and said he had only been in California for 2 days.

How long did William say he had been in California?

2 days. He had been in California for 2 days. William thanked Kate and said he had just been in California for 2 days.

Who thanked Kate?

William. William thanked Kate and said he had just been in California for 2 days.

How many days had William been in California?

2 days. William had been in California for 2 days. William said he had just been in California for 2 days.

Did William say he had been in California for one year?

No. William didn't say he had been in California for one year. William thanked Kate and said he had just been in California for 2 days.

Kate said she and her husband only moved to California 6 months before.

When did Kate and her husband move to California?

Kate said she and her husband only moved to California 6 months before and she still got lost.

Did Kate have a husband?

Yes. Kate had a husband. Kate said she and her husband only moved to California 6 months before and she still got lost.

Did Kate and her husband move to California 6 months before?

Yes. Kate said she and her husband only moved to California 6 months before and she still got lost.

She said she still got lost.

Who said she still got lost?

Kate. Kate said she still got lost. She said she still got lost.

What did Kate say?

She said she still got lost. Kate said she still got lost.

Did Kate say she had never got lost?

No. She said she still got lost. Kate said she still got lost.

William double – checked the directions.

Who double – checked the directions?

William. William double – checked the directions.

What did William do?

He double – checked the directions. William double – checked the directions.

Did John double – check the directions?

No. John didn't double – check the directions. William double – checked the directions.

William thanked Kate for giving him directions and said he had to leave.

Did William tell Kate he could have lunch with her?

No. William didn't tell Kate he could have lunch with her. William thanked Kate for giving him directions and said he had to leave.

Who did William thank?

Kate. William thanked Kate. William thanked Kate for giving him directions and said he had to leave.

Why didn't William continue talking to Kate?

Because he had to leave. William said he had to leave. William thanked Kate for giving him directions and said he had to leave.
