

LESSON 06 : DINING OUT

05. Point of View - Present Tense Q_A

English

Brian is speaking with Mary.

Who is Brian speaking with?

Mary. Brian is speaking with Mary. Brian is talking to Mary.

What is Brian doing with Mary?

Brian is speaking with Mary. He is speaking with Mary.

Is Brian dining out with Mary?

No. Brian isn't dining out with Mary. He is speaking with Mary.

Brian tells Mary he's thinking about going out to grab a bite.

What does Brian tell Mary?

Brian tells Mary he's thinking about going out to grab a bite. Brian tells Mary he's thinking about going out to get something to eat.

What is Brian thinking about?

He's thinking about going out to grab a bite. Brian tells Mary he's thinking about going out to grab a bite. Brian tells Mary he's thinking about going out to grab a bite. He tells Mary he's thinking about going out to get something to eat.

Where does Brian tell Mary he wants to go?

Brian tells Mary he wants to go out to grab a bite. He tells Mary he wants to go out to grab a bite.

Brian wants to know if Mary's hungry and wants to join him to eat.

Does Brian want to know if Mary's going to the movies?

No. He doesn't want to know if Mary's going to the movies. Brian wants to know if Mary's hungry and wants to join him to eat.

What does Brian ask Mary?

Brian asks if Mary's hungry and wants to join him to eat. He asks if Mary's hungry and wants to join him to eat.

Who wants to know if Mary's hungry?

Brian. Brian wants to know if Mary's hungry.

Who does Brian ask to join him to eat?

Mary. Brian asks Mary to join him to eat.

Mary says she's starving but can't go because she's busted.

Who says she's starving?

Mary. Mary says she is starving. Mary says she's starving but can't go because she's busted.

Why can't Mary go even though she's starving?

Because she's busted. Mary says she's starving but can't go because she's busted.

What reason does Mary give Brian why she can't join him?

Because she's busted. She can't join him because she's busted. Mary says she's starving but can't go because she's busted.

Brian tells her it's OK, he pays for her and it's his treat.

Who pays for Mary?

Brian. Brian tells her it's OK, he pays for her and it's his treat.

How does Brian help Mary?

Brian pays for her. Brian tells her it's OK when she's busted. He pays for her and it's his treat.

Who treats Mary for lunch?

Brian. Brian treats Mary for lunch. Brian tells her it's OK, he pays for her and it's his treat.

Brian asks Mary where she wants to go eat.

What does Brian ask Mary?

Brian asks Mary where she wants to go eat. He asks Mary where she wants to go eat.

Does Brian ask Mary where she attends school?

No. He doesn't ask her where she attends school. Brian asks Mary where she wants to go eat.

Who asks Mary where she wants to go eat?

Brian. Brian asks Mary where she wants to go eat. Brian asks Mary where she wants to go eat.

Mary says it doesn't matter.

What does Mary say?

She says it doesn't matter. Mary says it doesn't matter.

Who says it doesn't matter?

Mary. Mary says it doesn't matter. She says it doesn't matter.

Does Mary tell Brian the place to eat?

No. Mary doesn't tell Brian the place to eat. Mary says it doesn't matter.

Brian says he can use a good steak. He wants to try out the new steakhouse.

Does Brian want to check out the new pizza restaurant?

No. He doesn't want to check out the new pizza restaurant. Brian says he likes having a good steak and wants to try out the new steakhouse.

Where does Brian want to go?

The new steakhouse. He wants to go to the new steakhouse. Brian says he likes having a good steak and wants to try out the new steakhouse.

What does Brian want to try out?

Brian wants to try out the new steakhouse. Brian says he could use a good steak and wants to try out the new steakhouse.

Mary says she could go for a steak, too.

What kind of food does Mary want?

Steak. Mary wants steak, too. Mary says she could go for a steak too.

Does Mary want Italian food?

No. She doesn't want Italian food. Mary says she could go for a steak too. She feels like eating steak, too.

Who says she could go for a steak too?

Mary. Mary says she could go for a steak too. Mary says she feels like steak, too.

Brian says he can swing by to pick Mary up in about 10 minutes.

Does Brian swing by and pick up Mary in one hour?

No. He doesn't say he picks up Mary in one hour. Brian says he swings by to pick Mary up in about 10 minutes.

What does Brian say?

He says he can swing by to pick Mary up in about 10 minutes. Brian says he can swing by to pick Mary up in about 10 minutes.
